

DEMOTION, DRINKS & DINNER

The Rancho Santa Fe Rotary Club held its annual Demotion, Drinks & Dinner at the Morgan Run Club & Resort. More than 70 attendees gathered to thank outgoing president Robin Chappelow for her service during the challenging past year. Guests enjoyed musical entertainment by Victoria Robertson, and a light-hearted roast and gifts were bestowed upon Chappelow. Attendees dressed in colorful tropical attire in honor of Chappelow's love of Hawaii. The incoming president for the next Rancho Santa Fe Rotary calendar year is Elizabeth Christensen, OD.

Amy Wynne, Robin Chappelow, Mary Murray, Paula Shaw, Roshanak Clune, Jerah Payne, and Sophia Alsadek

Lisa Kern, John King, Jill King, Tom Koss, Uschi Crouch, Carrie Woodland, and Hal Baerg

Mike Taylor, Carl Larson, and Luis Carranza

PHOTOGRAPHY BY ROB MCKENZIE

Barrett Thompson, Jerah Payne, Paula Shaw, Katie Hawkes, Max and Cindy Wuthrich, Rand Christensen, and Eli Feghali

Lisa and Anthony Marks

Shirley Harper and Ruth Yansick

Barbara Graf, Nancy Walters, and Deborah Miller

Ralph and Effie Lundberg

Lucy and Don Hodges

COURTESY PHOTOGRAPHY

Hila de Anda and Georgia Schweitzer

SUMMER SOIREE

The La Jolla Community Center is a place for social gatherings, classes about various subjects, lectures, and concerts. Coming out of COVID-19 restrictions, the center welcomed approximately 65 people back to its first in-person event, complete with music by Gizeh Guevara, food, an opportunity drawing, silent auction, and dancing. In her remarks during the event, Executive Director Nancy Walters explained that during the last 15 months, the center had hosted 300 virtual classes and 50 special events and concerts, and delivered 100 meals. La Jolla Community Center is once again powering up its programming and schedules vary from month to month, so sign up for the newsletter as advance registration is required.